Treasurer Report given by Laura

- We made $680 from our Chik-fil-A Spirit Night
- 2 givebacks payouts this month $43, $86,
- Cash deposits after book fair money and the shirt sales = $1012, coins $41.85
- $365 on shirt sales
- We ended the month of February with $22,222.52
- We are going to see if we can move our $11,000 savings to a high yield savings account. Can we have 2 banking institutions?

Teacher Appreciation Week

- We are moving Teacher Appreciation week to the week of May 4th-8th instead.
- Tuesday: Thirst delivery 12:30, need volunteers to sort and deliver to teachers
- Wednesday: Snack bar
- Thursday: Fondue bar
- Wed. & Thurs. Amazon gift cards (recipients must sign for their card)

Battle of the Books

- We are forming teams tomorrow (March 13th)
- We will not split into teams by grade. The teams will be mixed between 4th, 5th, and 6th
- We need volunteers for the battles: about 10 volunteers
- We have prizes for students who have read all 12 books
- We need one first place prize for our one first place team
- We want to also have a prize for the second place team as well.
- We want to make 3D trophies. Melissa will contact Mindy about the trophies.
- We have budgeted a pizza party for everyone who has participated.
- $5 gift cards to Thirst or something for the teachers who participate

Other topics briefly discussed

- Nominating committee is taken care of. The nominations are Erika as President, Laura as Treasurer, and Cheyenne as Secretary. The nominations will be posted on the Facebook page.
- The upcoming book fair is a BOGO free night. The sale applies to everything there, not just the books.
- We are trying to decide if we want to have another Spirit night in May, and if so, what place would we like to do this time? Dominoes?

President Baker thanked all for coming and the meeting adjourned at 5:12pm
